The World's No. 1 Trade Fair for Plastics and Rubber
8-15 OCTOBER 2025 · Düsseldorf · Germany · k-online.com

Welcome to the No. 1 trade fair for plastics and rubber.

As the world's leading trade fair for the plastics and rubber industry, K 2025 will once again be the global industry highlight of the year for groundbreaking innovations and developments as well as visionary inspiration. Industry and researchers will present trade visitors future perspectives and solutions for the sector. Game-changing concepts like the circular economy and digitalisation will find a platform to show how they can sustainably master global challenges and successfully shape the future.

3,020 exhibitors from 59 countries - international market leaders along with young, innovative newcomers (like you) - showed impressive performance in 2022. More than 177,000 high-ranking trade visitors from 167 countries took advantage of K as an ideal business platform for information and investments. Be there.

- Present your young, innovative company in the Start-up Zone K 2025.
- Show a high-ranking professional audience what you're made of.
- Take off into the world of the plastics and rubber industry.
